THIS IS A GENERIC SCHEDULE FOR FLIGHTS. WILL BE CONFIRMED BY THE TIME OF BOOKING.

➡ DAY 1 Hola, bienvenido a Cuba! We will arrive in the morning. Meet our guide at the airport and visit "Finca Vigia" the home where Hemingway lived in Cuba. Lunch at Paladar Divino. Check in at Hotel in the neighborhood of El Vedado. Welcome cocktail and meeting with our guide that will explain the program for our trip. Time to rest, money exchange... Dinner will be served at 7PM at paladar "Cañonazo". We need to move quickly because the canon blast ceremony is scheduled for 9PM. After the ceremony we will have opportunities to take some pictures and to have informal chats with those young men who run the ceremony while serving their military duties. OPTIONAL: Returning our hotel we will pass by the Nacional Hotel. You may stay there and enjoy the live music at the Patio in front of the Malecon Habanero.

➡ DAY 2 This morning we will walk through Old Havana in a guided tour for appreciation of the colonial buildings in this UNESCO World Heritage Site. Central Park, Obispo Street, Cathedral Square, the Old and Saint Francis Abbey and a book market are among the spots we will visit. After a short walk through cobblestone streets in Old Havana, lunch will be served at "Paladar Cuba 54". After lunch we will visit Callejon de Hamel guided Elias, a specialist in Afro-Cuban religion. The area is a live carnival, a mix of art, music and tradition. We will visit the studio of painter Salvador Gonzalez who has decorated the walls of the buildings with Afro-Cuban concepts. Return to the hotel for rest and leisure. Dinner on your own.

OPTIONAL: If your batteries are still charged you can go to Cabaret Parissien at Nacional Hotel, great music, great show.

➡ DAY 3 After breakfast at the hotel we will meet self employed taxi drivers who run their businesses in old cars such as Chevy, Chrysler, Oldsmobile, all of them built in U.S. before the 1959 Cuban Revolution. Ride those cars to visit Art Studio of Jose Fuster. He is well known for his work converting a poor fishermen village into an open art gallery. Lunch at "La Cueva del Zorro". Return to Havana through 5th Avenue, the street where other countries have their embassies. After lunch, complete the Old Havana tour visiting the Cuban Association of Artisans where they will show us the way they express, through their art, the modern living of the Cuban people. Bargain and buy artworks from authentic Cuban painters. Return to the hotel for rest. Farewell dinner will be served at Paladar Rejoneo.

➡ DAY 4 Early breakfast and a farewell to our friends in Havana. The flight from Havana to Miami is waiting for us! Bye bye Havana.

HOTEL AND RESTAURANTS MAY CHANGE DEPENDING ON AVAILABILITY.
